INSPO LIST*

A LIST OF WOMEN WHO INSPIRED AND SUSTAINED US
IN 2021

*AFTER A CHALLENGING
TWELVE MONTHS, THE WLAQ PRESENTS THIS SPECIAL EDITION OF
THE INSPO LIST*

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Catherine Cheek
President

Last year, I wrote that there had never been 12 months like 2020. Despite the legacy of 2020 conditions, 2021 was not the same as 2020. In March 2021, we expected to return to something that resembled, if not replicated, our pre-COVID-19 life, but with inclusion of progressive changes in work and domestic flexibility.

We spoke casually of a resumption of pre-COVID activities. We expected the worst to be over. In short, we were mentally prepared for an intense sprint to the end of the COVID-19 upheaval.

Instead, we have found ourselves grinding through 2021 into 2022, having lived through a time where endurance and stamina were the essential skills in our skillset. At the beginning of 2021, we anticipated that we would go hard and fast to get to an early finish. We were not prepared for the extended effort of a marathon.

This year, the WLAQ Committee would like to acknowledge the women who have made this effort possible, because without this sustenance, it is difficult to imagine continuing with depleted energy, patience and personal resources.

Because we wish to acknowledge the value of those who have checked in on us, lifted our spirits and reminded us how competent we are, we have offered the opportunity to thank our fellow women lawyers to our membership. The women mentioned in this year's list have given the gifts of support and encouragement in the last 12 months to another member of our organisation.

WLAQ also acknowledges all firms, businesses, chamber groups and organisations who have contributed to the profession's ability to adapt to the 2021/2022 marathon.

This is the fifth year that WLAQ has published its Inspo List. All the women listed hold a law degree either in or from Queensland.

Senior Judicial Registrar Anne-Marie Rice
Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia

April Freeman
More Chambers

Throughout 2021, April juggled an extremely busy practice as well as family commitments with her two young boys with style and grace. Despite how busy she is she maintains contact with our tight group of female lawyer friends to ensure we have regular catch ups and opportunities to vent to each other.

Magistrate Belinda Merrin
Brisbane Magistrates Court of Queensland

Beth Rolton
Travis Schultz & Partners

Beth personally ensured each of her team members felt valued and appreciated during what was a difficult time due to COVID and staffing changes. She encouraged and motivated me to progress my career at a time I felt it wasn't possible. Beth's continued encouragement made me realise I could achieve things I'd previously thought weren't possible.

- WLAQ on Beth Rolton

Bettina Trenear
Queensland Police Service

Dr Bridget Cullen

Judge Dearne Firth
Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Div 2)

Deborah Awyzio
DA Family Lawyers

Deborah Mitchell
Administrative Appeals Tribunal

I didn't know Dale before I came to the bar in 2021, but we connected via a social media group and she was instantly supportive to me and offers me her time and support and mentoring. Dale recently organised a get together - a small group of women barristers with the sole purpose of enabling us to meet each other and get to know each other for support and ideas sharing.

- WLAQ on Dale Brampton

District Court and Children's Court of Queensland

Justice Debra Mullins AO
Queensland Court of Appeal

Dejana Kovac
ODPP

Diane Ruhl
Ruhl Family Law Centre

Dominique Lamb
National Retail Association

Donna Callaghan
Jeddart Chambers

Donna is a quiet achiever, but she was the first and most supportive person to me at the bar. No one talks about how isolating the bar is, but in 2021 Donna made me feel welcome, like I had a community from day one at the bar, and she is generous with her time and knowledge.

- WLAQ on Donna Callaghan
